When you use certified mail, the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) provides you with a receipt proving that you have shipped the shipment, and the recipient must sign the delivery receipt before the item is transferred. These functions prove that the item has been shipped and received. You can also track your certified mail while it's on its way. THE USPS provides its Track & Confirm service with each certified mail sent. Go to the USPS website, usps.com. Enter the receipt number in the box on the right side of the screen that says Track and Confirm. Press the Go button. The site will display tracking information for your approved message. Dial 800-222-1811 on your phone. Answer the words to follow and confirm when an automated woman asks what you would like to do. Collect the tracking code from the receipt when an automatic voice asks. You can also speak to the phone receiver. Say so that you can confirm your tracking number after an automated woman has read it to you. If the voice reads the wrong tracking number, say no, then re-enter the voucher number. The voice will then provide you with tracking information in the approved letter. Tips for USPS Track & Confirm can be found by phone from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays. Health Food Plan: One Week Of Meals Need Some Food Department Guidelines?
